

2006 MID-SOUTH STOCKER CONFERENCE

"Taking It To The Next Level"

February 16-17, 2006

Clarksville, Tennessee

Holiday Inn

Thursday, February 16

- 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Trade Show Set Up
- 1:00 p.m. Preconference Tour of Area Stocker Operations
(Sponsored by Tennessee-Kentucky Livestock Market)
- 6:00 p.m. Reception in Trade Show Area
(Hosted by Bayer Animal Health)

Friday, February 17

- 8:00 a.m. On-site Registration and Visit Trade Show
- 8:45 a.m. Opportunities for Stockering Cattle in Mid-South, Jim Neel
- 9:00 a.m. The Role of Stockering in the Beef Cattle Industry, Mike Murphy
- 9:45 a.m. Visit Trade Show
- 10:30 a.m. Developing and Managing Economical Feeding Programs that Work, Dave Lalman
- 11:15 a.m. Where Does Technology Fit in the Stocker Segment, Dale Blasi
- 12:00 Noon Lunch (Hosted by Bayer Animal Health)
- Lunch Feature Topic: Health and Management of Stressed Calves, Brad White
- 1:30 p.m. How Does Stocker Cattle Fit in Branded Beef Programs, Larry Corah
(Sponsored by Certified Angus Beef)
- 2:15 p.m. Source Verification of Stocker Cattle, Jim Akers
- 3:00 p.m. How We Have Made It Work?
(A Panel Discussion by Successful Kentucky and Tennessee Stocker Operators)
Producers: Brenda and Austin Paul and Mark Houston; Moderator, Emmit Rawls
- 3:30 p.m. Wrap Up, Curtis Absher
- 3:45 p.m. Have a Safe Trip Home