

2007 Mid – South Stocker Conference

“Managing Change”

February 13 and 14
Cave City Convention Center
Cave City, Kentucky

Tuesday, February 13

- 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. Trade Show Set Up
- 1:00 p.m. Pre-conference Tour of Area Stocker Operations*
- 6:00 p.m. Reception at the Convention Center
(Sponsored by Bayer Animal Health)

Wednesday, February 14

- 8:00 a.m. On-site registration ($145.00) and visit the trade show
- 8:45 a.m. Opportunities for the Stocker Cattle Industry in the Mid – South, John T. Johns, University of Kentucky
- 9:00 a.m. Realities and Opportunities for Stocker Cattle in the Export Market, Jim Akers. Southeast Livestock Network
- 9:30 a.m. Update on the Voluntary National Animal ID Effort, Charles Miller
- 10:00 a.m. Break, Visit Trade Show
- 11:00 a.m. Profitability Outlook for Stocker Cattle, Randy Blach, Cattle – Fax
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch and Visit Trade Show
- 1:00 p.m. Price Risk Management, John Anderson, Mississippi State University
- 1:45 p.m. Receiving Nutrition, Getting Calves Started Right, Andy Cole, USDA, Bushland, Texas
- 2:30 p.m. Persistent Infection with BVD virus, what it means in stocker cattle, Guy H. Loneragan, DVM, College of Veterinary Medicine, Texas A & M
- 3:25 p.m. Producer panel discussion of “What We Do and Why It Works”, Tim White, Charles Miller and Brent Carter
- 3:45 p.m. Wrap – Up and Take Home Message, Joe Roybal, Editor, Beef Magazine